Annotated Bibliographies

Annotated Bibliography- a list of sources that includes a summary and/or an evaluation of each source.

For this project:

- 5 sources w/ MLA citation (one primary source)
- Each with a paragraph of annotation (Summary, evaluation, reflection of application)

Annotations: (7-9 sentences)

- Summarize
  What is the main argument? What are the main points? What topics are covered? In short, what is the source about? (3 sentences)

- Access
  Evaluate the source. Was it useful? Is it reliable? How do you know? How does it compare to your other sources? (3 sentences)

- Reflect
  How does the source fit into your research? Was it helpful? How does it affect your argument? (1-2 sentences)
Format- citations

○ The first entry should be one double-spaced line below the title, which should be Annotated Bibliography. All other entries should follow in alphabetical order.

○ Each entry should follow the standard citation format according to MLA citation style.

Format- Annotations

- Each annotation should begin one double spaced line beneath each works cited entry.

- Each annotation should follow standard paragraph format, beginning with an indentation.

- Each annotation should be roughly the same length so that each entry looks uniform.

Formatting

- MLA Citations- Hanging indent

- Annotations should be indented to match the hanging indent!
